Curated work

A online space for entrepreneurs to pitch ideas, explore others, and gain exposure with clean design.

— Next Ventures

A platform designed for early-stage entrepreneurs to pitch, browse, and engage with startup ideas. It's built to impress both users and investors with blazing speed, compelling visuals, and a modern tech stack.

- Leveraged Partial Prerendering and After for faster loading.
- Simplified idea submission with a clean, intuitive design.
- Enhanced browsing with seamless performance optimization.

A platform connecting students and instructors for enhanced learning experiences.

A platform for creating and sharing code snippets with a clean and intuitive design.
